

CLEVELAND'S PRIZE FLOWER.

OFFICIAL ADVANTAGE.

Auburn (N. Y.) Bulletin.—Not a Lehigh Valley official will go without his supper if the strike lasts a year.

GROVER'S MISTAKE.

New York Press.—While Cleveland is "untaxing" foreign imports, he is taxing, as they were never taxed before, the energies of the charitable and benevolent associations of the country.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS.

Wheeling (W. Va.) Intelligencer.—The Hawaiian Royalty Accident Insurance Company, Grover Cleveland President, Walter Q. Gresham, Secretary. Offices Washington and Honolulu.

A NEW OUTFIT.

New York Press.—Queen "Lil" has ordered new dresses for herself and the "ladies of the court" in anticipation of her restoration to the throne. As usual, the American portion of her subjects mainly is expected to foot the bill.

CLEVELAND MUST CHANGE HIS POLICY.

Chicago Daily News.—The protest which has risen everywhere against Mr. Cleveland's implied intention to restore the Queen is quite likely to lead to the abandonment of that policy unless Minister Willis has already begun to carry it out. Whether such beginning has been made will be known on the arrival of the next steamer from Honolulu.

THE BROOKLYN EAGLE'S ADVICE TO CLEVELAND IS "DON'T!"

Brooklyn Eagle.—The traditions of the United States are against the annexation of foreign territories. They are also against the overthrow of governments or of administration anywhere, republican in fact or in form, and against the replacement or restoration of monarchical institutions. The American people would be, we think, almost a unit in favor of these traditions.

If anyone has a copy of THE PUBLIC LEDGER of the date of Wednesday, October 31, 1892, they will confer a great favor and place us under many obligations by bringing or sending it to this office.

ALBERT MAYO, aged 42, a widower, and teacher at a district school in Crittenden county, was arrested, charged with assaulting a fifteen-year-old girl pupil. A nice overcoat of tar and feathers would be a suitable Christmas gift for that gentleman, but a wooden one will probably be the one he will get.

JOHN J. REYNOLDS, the sole owner and proprietor of the Postoffice drugstore, desires to state to the public that Charles T. Huff will still be connected with the drugstore, and wishes all Mr. Huff's, sends and all other people of the community to call and see him. Mr. Huff's many friends will be pleased to learn that he is to stay in this position.

THE Second District Union will meet in Mayslick December 5th, 6th and 7th. This is one of the most interesting meetings that is held by this Union. The good people of Mayslick extend a cordial invitation to all those interested in the work to attend. The Christian Endeavorers who attend are requested to take with them the Christian Endeavor edition of hymn books.

THE little 150-inhabitant town of McKinney, Lincoln county, is on the map. And this little town has some women who will "scrap" sometimes. Sunday night two met at a church that were looking for trouble, and found it. Both will have to visit a doctor and a milliner to get their faces and heads in a recognizable condition before they will be allowed to enter society again. Nothing but a fellow.

THOSE persons who have given or still wish to donate to the supper for the benefit of the Cox Building to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 3 o'clock prompt. The supper will be a grand success and anyone missing it will deprive themselves of good food and the Y. M. C. A. much needed help. There will be no concert and recitation at the Court house as at first intended. It was impossible to get talent, although our thanks are given to two or three who signified their willingness to assist.

Holiday at Postoffice To-morrow.—The Money Order Department will not be open. General Delivery open until 10 a. m. The Carriers will make only one delivery and collection at 7 a. m. After 7 a. m. drop letters in Postoffice instead of street boxes.

"Edgewood Folks."

Edgewood is the name of a New England village and the "folks" are some of its inhabitants. The action concerns itself with the experience of a young clergyman settled in Edgewood whom certain wicked schemers seek to despoil of a magnificent inheritance and whose fortunes are defended and saved through the counterplot of a devoted friend. The latter character, Tom Dillaway, being performed by Mr. Heywood who assumes several disguises and exhibits ingenuity and zeal, together with a clever talent for character acting. The qualities that impress and attract in this gentleman's acting are sincerely, amiability, tenderness and playful humor. Mr. Heywood's "Tom Dillaway" is a creation and is full enough of rapid changes to satisfy a lover of pantomime and has manliness enough about it to please a Bishop. This talented young star, supported by an exceedingly strong company will be the attraction at Opera-house Tuesday evening, November 5th, and judging from the large sale of seats at present he will receive a cordial welcome.

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1893.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

H. P. Bridges is visiting his mother, Mrs. Amanda Bridges.

T. Gordon Gilmore of Augusta was a visitor to our city yesterday.

Dr. Claude Pollitt was in the city yesterday. He will stay until after Thanksgiving.

V. B. Dawson and Julius Miller, two of Ashland's good citizens, were in the city yesterday.

Miss Bessie Smith of this city is visiting her sister, Mrs. James B. Faulkner at Flemingsburg.

Miss Mary Lizzie Grant has returned home after an extended visit to Mrs. J. F. Locke of Newport.

Charles Figgins, one of Augusta's handsome young men, was a pleasant visitor to our city yesterday.

Mrs. H. R. Bierbower has returned home after several weeks visit to her parents at Millersburg.

Mrs. Amanda Bridges of West Second street has returned from a visit to her son, H. P. Bridges of Felicity, O.

Harry B. Wood and his cousin, Miss Rattie Thomas of Mt. Glenard, were in town yesterday calling on friends and relatives.

Howard Cady, one of our most estimable young men, left this morning for Frankfort to spend a few days with his brother, Will S. Cady.

W. A. Huff of Chicago is in the city visiting A. N. Huff. This is the young man that was reported killed last summer in the fire at the World's Fair.

THAT TAILOR'S BILL OF MINE.

As one who goes at evening over an album all alone, And mused on the faces of the friends that he has known, So I turn the leaves of fancy till, in shadowy design, I see upon the table—that tailor's bill of mine!

The lamplight seems to glimmer with a flicker of surprise, As I turn it low to keep the bill from staring in my eyes, And light my pipe in silence, save a sigh that seems to choke, Its fate with my tobacco—and I try to laugh and joke.

But I hear, beneath my study, like a fluttering of wings, The hired girl "answering the door," and soon more bills she brings, And I feel a twinge of conscience, in my heart an aching pain, As I answer, "Say I'm out—and they must call again!"

In fact, to speak in earnest, I believe it adds a charm To the little now and then—it surely is no harm, For I find an extra flavor in life's old mellow wine, As I sip and say to creditors "I'll fix you up next time!"

A face of manly beauty, with a form of legal grace, Floats out of my tobacco as the gent from the vase, And I thrill beneath the glances of those Masterful eyes, As "Squire" says, "Judgment—also costs!"—and then my tailor sighs.

I can see those checkered trousers on which the duds all dote, And the double-breasted waistcoat and that stylish Seymour coat, Then a Constable approaches with a Bourgeoisish cough, And, pointing at my pantaloons, says, "Cully, take 'em off!"

And again I feel the pressure of his wary lit, As he describes me gently, and in underclothes I stand, And sweat and shake and shiver and stroke my scraggy shins, While my tailor stands there chuckling, and the "Squire" is full of grins.

I think if I could ever leave that Magisterial Court, I'd never try again to be a full-fledged, howling sport, If some kind Christian gentleman would pay the court that fine, I'll swear I'd never run again that tailor's bill of mine.

But there I stood a-shivering throughout the lifelong day, Just waiting for some angel to come along and say, "It seems to me they've scared you just about enough— So the Elks clipped in together, and sent me with the stuff!"

As shades of night were falling a step upon my heels, I heard that my grocer with his bill was standing there; So I took the poor man's oath, boys, and when you read my will, You'll find a cordial attached, "Don't pay no tailor's bill!"

—Howard Sarby.

FRESH bulk oysters at Martin Bros.

For speedy relief and cure in cases of bronchitis, take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It controls the cough and induces sleep.

THAT dread malady, la grippe, having again made its appearance in our midst, it behooves everyone to take all precautionary measures against the sudden changes in the temperature. A pair of fleece-lined Jersey leggings, of which you will find a complete line of ladies', misses and children's at Miner's shoe store, will be a source of great comfort and protection to you this winter. A full stock of ladies' overgaiters also.

ANDREW ROTH and Miss Bridget Craven were married yesterday at St. Patrick's Church.

JOHN T. LEWIS, aged 18, was killed by a freight train near Central City. He was wrong in the cranium.

THE State Evangelist of the Christian Church, H. W. Elliott, will preach at the Christian Church in Mayslick Sunday.

JUDGE BOOE of Flemingsburg is making it warm for the sporting element of Poplar Plains, having fined eighteen for unlawful gaming.

THE labor that was secured in Pittsburgh by the Ashland authorities who run the Iron Works has gone, some going back while others went South.

EDWARD L. HILL & SON completed 694 yards of plastering at Lew Penn's new residence at Mt. Olivet in four and one-half days, and is again at his home in this city.

WALTER BANKS, the colored man who was elected to the City Council at Mt. Sterling, cannot qualify for the office, as he failed to register and was not a qualified voter.

THE Board of Education will meet Thursday evening at the office of W. H. Wadsworth, Court street. The Public Schools will be dismissed this evening for the remainder of the week.

THERE is still no change in the deadlock between the Board of Aldermen and the School Board at Louisville. It may be that the deadlock is the cause of this late cold spell—the Boards are playing freeze-out.

ASHLAND has a tourist club. So has Maysville. Our tourist club is one the citizens are proud of. In fact, so proud of the club are our business men that they will not let them go to work, but they allow them to keep on walking. They are all good citizens.

THERE must be some mistake in the report sent to one of the Cincinnati dailies to the effect that the grip is raging in this city. There may be a few cases of bad colds, but we have heard of but one case of genuine grip, and that is the one the motorman has on the street cars.

FRANK SCARBOROUGH, the forger who has given the Lexington authorities a great deal of trouble here lately and who escaped from the Lexington Jail a couple weeks ago, leaving a note that he would return, was captured at Chattanooga, Tenn., Monday evening. We'll wager Mr. Scarboro will not get out of that jail again until his trial.

The lecture at the M. E. Church, South, last evening by Rev. Edward Thomson, LL.D., was well attended, there being present one of the largest audiences that ever greeted a lecturer in this city. The lecture throughout was one of deep interest, and all who were there are loud in their praises of Mr. Thomson. The lecture was beneficial to our citizens and we hope the good work the gentleman spoke of will be speedily taken up in our city.

THIS MORNING AT 10

Is the Hour Set for the Trial of Ex-Priest McNamara.

The Mayor's Office was crowded yesterday afternoon to attend the trial of ex-Priest McNamara, charged with selling obscene literature and carrying concealed weapons.

The case was set for 2 o'clock, before "Squire Grant, and was called for trial on time. The attorneys for the defendant, Galbraith & Johnson, stated to the court that they were not ready for trial, and filed an affidavit that they couldn't get a fair and impartial hearing, asking a change of venue and showing that the court had no jurisdiction in the case, and also demanding a jury.

Whereupon "Squire Grant overruled the motion for a change of venue, ordered Attorney Galbraith to sit down, declared that "he didn't care whether he had jurisdiction or not, he intended to take it," and was on the eve of denying the sacred right of trial by jury when the prosecution, paralyzed at the procedure of the court, suggested that it might be well for Mr. Galbraith to ask a continuance in case his client was not ready for trial.

Immediately afterward, while Mr. Galbraith was addressing the counsel of the plaintiff, he fired the question to the attorney "that he guessed he had better address the court." The idea of a man addressing the court when in such a state as the one in question, who didn't care whether or not he had any jurisdiction, he was going to take it!

One of the attorneys for the Commonwealth—Judge Whitaker—seemed to think the defendant should be ready for trial, and that the case should be proceeded with.

Judge Cole, who was also for the Commonwealth, stated that if the defendant wasn't ready for trial and wanted a jury he couldn't see why the court shouldn't grant the request.

After turning the subject over in his "great" mind, the venerable court finally decided that to-day at 10 o'clock a. m. before a jury, the Reverend gentleman should have a fair and impartial trial.

The case has aroused great interest among our citizens, and the trial and outcome of the case will be watched with deep concern.

THE success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping-cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son of Cameron, O., say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. James M. Quoon of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, Druggist, Winona, Minn., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by John J. Reynolds, Druggist.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWIL WARMER
GROW.
If Black's DENRATH—COLDER it will be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

REV. C. J. NUGENT will preach the Thanksgiving service at Paris to-morrow.

THE Christian Church at Mayslick has called Rev. F. M. Tindler to the pastorate for the coming year.

JOHN C. TALBOT, a prominent farmer and stock raiser and dealer of Bourbon county, made an assignment yesterday to J. B. Northcott.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR W. B. SHAW of Louisville, recently convicted of violating the internal revenue laws, was granted a new trial yesterday.

DR. PARIS WHEELER left last night for New York, where he will sail on Saturday next for Edinburgh, Scotland, to be absent until about the 1st of January.

THE Columbian stamps will soon be like Columbus—an historical fact. The Government has stopped making them, and the supply now on hand will be speedily exhausted by the relic savers.

WILLIE BEAUCHAMP, aged 3 years, living near Frankfort, was burned to death yesterday morning by his clothes catching fire from a grate. The old regulation is now in order: "Little Willie, he has left us."

THE books of the Limestone Building Association are now open for subscription to the Ninth Series of stock. Call on H. C. Sharp, Secretary; James Threlkeld, Treasurer; C. D. Newell, Solicitor, or any of the Directors.

THE Hotel LeLand, S. R. Brooks's new hotel at Lexington, was opened Monday for the first time. Mr. Brooks announces that he will give a big dinner to-morrow and wants his friends to call and eat with him.

DON'T miss the opportunity to have a free guess at the wonderful box, given by the Mifflin Clothing Parlor. We offer big bargains in Suits and Overcoats. You will have a guess to every purchase. No. 128 Market street.

LOUISA is now in the fray, as are all the balance of the up-Sandy towns with the liquor question. The liquor dealers are making a game fight for the invasion of the little town, and the case will be definitely settled by bailor on the 22nd of next January.

MRS. MARGARET VANCE, a lady who belongs to the distinguished family after whom the city of Vanceburg was named, died yesterday at a good ripe age at the home of her son-in-law, Professor J. S. Mavity, at Vanceburg. Her remains were taken to Concord for burial.

LOWER than ever. To reduce a very large stock of watches I have made a great reduction in prices on ladies' and gents' solid gold, gold filled and silver watches. I have a very large stock of silver watches for boys and girls. Prices very low. P. J. MURPHY, Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

MRS. M. HAYCRAFT is announced as a candidate for State Librarian, the office now held by Mrs. Mary Brown Day. Mrs. Haycraft is a widow, but that fact won't get her the office. She will have to get that name changed. There were too many "hays" in Frankfort last winter to suit the people, judging from some of the laws they made.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says S. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. It is intended especially for colds, croup and whooping-cough." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by John J. Reynolds, Druggist.

BRECKINRIDGE'S OPPONENT.

Hon. W. C. Owens Will be a Candidate to Succeed Him.

That Hon. W. C. Owens will be a candidate to succeed W. C. Breckinridge is no longer a question.

Mr. Owens lived in Frankfort yesterday told intimate friends as much.

When seen by a newspaper correspondent at the Capitol Hotel yesterday evening, Mr. Owens said: "I have not formally announced myself, but I am thinking of becoming a candidate, and will announce myself at the proper time."

Mr. Owens felt very much encouraged over his prospects.

He was temporary Chairman of the Chicago Convention which nominated Cleveland.

Mr. Owens has always been a warm friend of Frankfort county, and she now stands ready to pay her political debt.

The Pollard scandal has injured the silver-tongued Breckinridge in the Bluegrass District, and it is said Mr. Breckinridge will not be a candidate.

Illinois, Kentucky.

From Danville, Ill., Mrs. H. J. Nabors writes: "I have been using your remedies for scrofula and am greatly benefited. My back was one solid sore. Two boxes of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment healed it entirely."

From Olive Hill, Ky., Mrs. M. J. Matney writes May 28th, 1892: "My daughter has been afflicted with erysipelas in her eyes from infancy. She is now past 12 years old and one 25-cent box has cured her."

It costs no more to get the best. This the best ointment in the world for general use. Get a box at Power & Reynolds's drugstore.

ALLEN BASHFORD, one of Paris's most prominent horsemen, has made an assignment to J. B. Northcott.

FIVE hundred people went to see Sullivan the bruiser at Paris. The people are hard up to see somebody.

THAT time-honored preparation, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, is still the medicine most in demand for colds and coughs. It always cures.

TATTERSALL'S great midwinter sale of native and imported thoroughbred stock of stallions, brood mares, horses in training and yearlings began Monday at Lexington.

RAILROAD tickets to any point at the lowest possible rates. Baggage checked through to destination. If you are going to travel call upon or write to W. W. Wikoff, Agent C. and O., Maysville, Ky.

FOR pains in the chest there is nothing better than a flannel cloth saturated with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It will produce a counter irritation without blistering, and it is so disagreeable as mustard; in fact is much superior to any plaster on account of its pain-relieving qualities. If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by John J. Reynolds, Druggist.

OUR good neighbors of Ashland have adopted a whistle for a fire alarm instead of the old regulation bell. It is of the mocking-bird order, and the noise it makes must arouse the people. There used to be one on a little steamboat that ran up the river, and when it blew the hideous thing everyone heard it. But then they should come down here and hear our alarm. We think we can give them cards and spades and beat them on the fire alarm system.

Notice.

If you are poor and need help, or sick and wish to be visited, address lock box 258, Maysville, Ky., giving name, street and number. Your wants will be promptly attended to.

Last Call for City Taxes.

Notice is hereby given that Wednesday, December 6th, is the last day for payment of City Taxes. On the following Thursday, a list of all unpaid will be furnished to Council, who will order same to be sold.

JAMES W. FITZGERALD, Collector and Treasurer.

Office, Keith-Schroeder Harness Company.

VENERABLE BRIDEGROOM.

A Kentucky Man Aged 85 Weds a Blushing Damsel of 72.

A marriage of unusual interest was celebrated in Grassley, Lewis county, yesterday morning.

James A. Baker, a gentleman of 85, was yoked up in matrimony with Mrs. Sarah Ann Cracraft, aged 72.

The happy couple had children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and the old gentleman himself great-great-grandchildren, at the wedding.

A big dance followed at night, and the old lady, to prove her latent juvenility, tripped the light fantastic a few rounds, while the antiquated groom, amid a burst of tumultuous merriment, cut a pigeon wing on the punch-con floor.

Mrs. R. G. Rhea

of Milford, Neb., says she suffered greatly from a complication of diseases of female weakness and liver and kidney troubles. Her health was fully restored by using Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the most pleasant and most effective medicine known. Twenty-five and fifty-cent packages at Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.

THE "SITCH."

The Production of Whisky From the Last Report.

Kentucky holds her own in making whisky, judging from the following reports of district.

The banner collection districts, in the order of amount collected last year, were as follows:

Peoria, Fifth Illinois.....$15,438,000
Louisville, Fifth Kentucky.....11,825,000
Cincinnati, First Ohio.....10,270,000
Chicago, First Illinois.....10,125,000

Lexington, Seventh Kentucky.....3,485,000
Lawrenceburg, Sixth Indiana.....2,744,000

Nearly 4,500,000 more gallons of whisky have been withdrawn from bond during the year than last year. Most of it was Bourbon whisky and the reason for its withdrawal was that the bonded had exceeded all efforts to obtain an extension.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment will cure blind, bleeding and itching piles when all other ointments have failed. Hon. Judge W. P. Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "I have suffered for years with itching piles, and have used many remedies. I have used Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment and been cured, while every other remedy has failed." Every box is warranted. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, fifty cents and $1 per box. WILLIAMS' MED. CO., Props., Cleveland, O.

A HOLOCAUST.

Fire at Oil City in Which Four Lives Are Lost.

The Flames Spread With Such Rapidity That Escape Was Difficult.

A Mother, After Carrying One of Her Children to the Sidewalk, Returned for the Others and Lost Her Life in the Attempt to Save Them.

OIL CITY, Pa., Nov. 29.—Fire which started at 4:30 Tuesday morning resulted in the loss of four lives and the destruction of about $90,000 worth of property, with $45,000 insurance. The district burned comprises the square in the heart of the city bounded by Center street, the railroad track, by Synamore street and Elm street.

The buildings were all occupied as stores, saloons, markets and the like. They were old wooden structures, erected in the early days of the oil excitement. The whole block was a veritable fire trap.

The buildings owned by Griffith & Bro., P. H. Shields, A. E. Connors, Wise & Borland and M. Braunschweiler were burned.

The fire originated in a defective flue in Shields's restaurant, and spread with such rapidity that it was with the utmost difficulty that any of the inmates escaped. Four of them were burned. Mrs. Hugh Shields, wife of the proprietor, after carrying one of her six children to the sidewalk in safety, returned for the others, and lost her life while attempting their rescue. Her daughter, Fannie, aged 14; a son, Charles, aged 5 years, and a baby, aged 7 months, completed the list. Workmen have been digging in the ruins all afternoon for the remains, and are still at it, but have not yet found them.

HORRIBLE DEED.

A Young Hoosier Girl Slaughters Her Steppather With an Ax.

VINCENNES, Ind., Nov. 29.—Henry Wesley, living near Monroe City, was Monday night backed to pieces with an ax in the hands of his stepdaughter, Lula Meyers. The girl was being lectured by her stepfather for staying away from home during the late hours of the night. Her brother interfered in her behalf, and while he was parleying and talking with the old man the girl slipped up behind her stern parent and dealt him several blows with the keen edge of an ax, splitting his skull, and cutting a large gash in the small of his back. The old man is barely alive, and the son and daughter have been bound over to court in heavy bonds. Sympathy is with the children, who have been subject to all manner of indignities by the father.

MASKED MEN

Again Visit a Columbus House—They Beat the Proprietor and His Wife, and Escape Detection After Robbing Other Places.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 29.—Three robbers, supposed to be the same ones who tortured Farmer Daniel Thomas and his wife last Sunday morning, forced an entrance into the house of James Ambrose at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

One held a revolver to Mr. Ambrose's head while the house was searched. They got only $15, and, mad with disappointment, severely kicked Ambrose and knocked his wife down before they left. They were handkerchiefs as masks.

John A. Violet, 147 Hubbard avenue, C. H. Fowle, 250 Marshall street, and J. Seller, near the insane asylum, all report their residences burglarized Monday night, evidently by the Thomas burglars.

Starving Miners Eating Dogs.
